

Nino Gurevich

The Georgian born pianist Nino Gurevich has established herself as a prestigious soloist and highly regarded chamber musician through numerous international concerts. She gave a number of performances at the "International Telavi Music Festival" (Georgia), at the "International Oleg Kagan Festival" in Kreuth (Germany), at the international "Ruhr Piano Festival" in Dortmund (Germany), at the Chopin Festival "Šopenijada" in Belgrade (Serbia); is regularly invited to the "Piano Summer Festival" in Vranje (Serbia), to the "European Music Workshop Altomünster" (Germany), to the "International Summer School" in Bad Reichenhall (Germany) and to many other festivals and masterclasses. She worked with many orchestras and distinguished conductors. Among them was the performance with the Novosibirsk Philharmonic Orchestra under the baton of Arnold Katz. She has made multiple recordings for Georgian Radio and Television.

Already as a young girl, Nino participated in international and national competitions and has gained numerous awards and prizes for her extraordinary skills. Including Georgian national Piano Competition, First Tbilisi International Piano Competition where she also won the Special Prize by the German Embassy, International Balys Dvarionas Competition in Vilnius (Lithuania), the first International Chopin Piano Competition for young pianists in Moscow (Russia). For her outstanding performances she was awarded a scholarship of the international "New Names" programme for exceptionally gifted young musicians and a scholarship of the International Vladimir Spivakov Foundation.

Nino was born into a family of musicians. At the age of six, she was accepted at the "Z. Paliashvili" Central Music School and began her studies with Professor Edisher Russishvili, with whom she stayed throughout her time at the school and later at the Tbilisi State Conservatory. After graduating with honours Nino Gurevich went to Munich, Germany, to complete her pianistic education at the Munich's "Hochschule für Musik und Theater" under the guidance of professor Elisso Wirssaladze. She was the winner of the "Musikhochschule München" Concerto Competition and graduated with special honours. Afterwards also with special honours Nino completed Meisterklasse für Liedgestaltung with professor Helmut Deutsch.

Nino Gurevich enjoys regular concert activity as a soloist as well as a chamber musician throughout Europe And Asia. Since 2017 she plays together with Tassilo Probst (Violin) and Ionas Mercadal (Clarinet) in Trio Somni.